General Education Information:

Please refer to the articulation agreement for a detailed list of general education requirements. Please use this document in conjunction with the most recent version of the Transferring to USC brochure and this advisement sheet. Articulation agreements are available at <https://camel2.usc.edu/articagrmt/artic.aspx>.

Admissions Information:

All questions regarding eligibility, admissions criteria, or admissions process should be directed to the Marshall School of Business, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, Bridge Hall 105, (213) 740-8885.

Successful completion of two accounting courses (BUSA 101 and 102) allows registration in BUAD 305x. BUSA101 and 102 will transfer as elective credit. If you do not complete the two semesters of accounting prior to entering USC, you would enroll in BUAD 250ab and take the two semesters of accounting at USC. Admission into the Leventhal School of Accounting is granted through the Marshall School of Business. Prospective accounting majors must receive grades of "B" or better in both BUSA 101 and 102.

NOTE: This advisement sheet is derived from the Articulation Agreement between USC and your college. This advisement sheet is not a formal document due to regular updates and changes. Please refer to the articulation agreements on the USC Website for new updates at <https://camel2.usc.edu/articagrmt/artic.aspx> prior to enrollment. For questions regarding course equivalency, please contact the Registrars Office at USC.
